

Raymond Pascali

e-mail: rp1214@comcast.net

Skills

PL/SQL Programming	HTML5 and CSS3	Crystal Reports 11.0
Eclipse 3.0	JAVA Programming	JavaScript
iReport 3.7	COBOL Programming

Professional Experience

Network Administrator, Philadelphia School District (April 2001 - present)

- Designs and deploys web based applications to support a range of business units. Using primarily Java and Oracle, deploys applications that drive key business processes, spanning typical business units (Human Resources, Finance) as well as unique and critical academic processes.
- Develops and extends applications for internal customers, such as, but not limited to:
 - Work Sampling System
 - Early Childhood Experiences Interview
 - Absence Control Application
 - Online Bulletin Board
- Administers Third Party Facilities Work Order Application
- Report Development
 - Early Childhood Progress Reports
 - Classroom Roll Sheets
 - Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Works collaboratively with other JAVA and/or mainframe developers

Programmer Analyst, Philadelphia School District (May 1989 - April 2001)

- Converted legacy systems as well as complex date subroutines to be year 2000 compliant
- Programmed and implemented the School District's first online Time and Attendance System (PARIS)

Programmer II, Philadelphia School District (May 1987 - April 1989)

- Maintained complex payroll applications which include:

- W-2 processing
- tax calculations
- union pay raises
- pay check enhancements

Programmer I, Philadelphia School District (May 1985 - April 1987)

- Reviewed, analyzed and prepared programs for assigned phases of large projects

Intelligent Electronics (1984 - 1985)

- Store Manager of Today's Computers personal computers retail store

Strawbridge & Clothier (1981 - 1984)

- Sales Clerk

Education

Holy Family University 2010

- Masters Degree in Elementary Education

Temple University 1983

- Bachelor of Business Administration with specialization in Computer Science